

JANUARY – FEBRUARY 2018

Programs for Kids and Families

Winter Reading Take a Byte Out of a Good Book January 2 - February 3

Our Winter Reading theme is all about games. Pac-man, building, programming and a day of GIANT games. Stop in all month long for some fun.

Little Learning Kits

Thursday, January 4, all day

Learn and play using our early literacy learning kits. Build a bridge, play with shapes or even play a ukulele!

Scratch Programming

Wednesday, January 10, 3 – 5 pm

Pull out your logic skills and learn a bit about programming. Ages 10+

Day Off Build-A-Thon

Tuesday, January 16, all day

Legos, Lincoln Logs, K'nex and more! The Library will be filled with loads of toys so you can build the day away.

Family Giant Game Day

NEW DATE! Saturday, January 27, all day

Winter Reading is getting HUGE. Spend a day with family and friends playing giant games - life-sized Candy Land, Connect 4 and more.
